Trudy-Ann Scott is a senior manager specialising in the administration of complex trust structures and providing independent fiduciary services and insolvency and restructuring advice to offshore and onshore registered funds and companies.

With over 12 years' experience in assurance and advisory services, including eight years with a 'Big Four' firm, Trudy-Ann has worked across a range of industries in Australia, Barbados and other Caribbean islands.

She began working in the Cayman Islands in 2007 in the assurance team at a major firm specialising in audits of offshore and onshore hedge funds. She later joined the advisory team focusing on the liquidation of entities registered in various jurisdictions as well as forensic accounting investigations.

Her recent experience includes the administration of complex trust and company structures as well as the administration of the Cayman estate of a HNW individual. She continues to be involved in the orderly restructuring and winding down of solvent and insolvent entities registered in a variety of jurisdictions including the Cayman Islands, USA, the Bahamas and the British Virgin Islands. She has an extensive knowledge of the Cayman Islands Anti-Money Laundering and Know Your Client Regulations.

Trudy-Ann's qualifications include being a TEP (Trust and Estate Practitioner), a fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants in the UK, and a Certified Fraud Examiner. She is a member of the Restructuring and Insolvency Specialists Association in the Cayman Islands, INSOL International, the Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants and STEP (Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners). She is also a Notary Public in the Cayman Islands.
