As senior manager (Forensics and Investigations), Jasmine Brown provides services predominantly on contentious matters. In particular harnessing her in-depth experience on e-discovery and forensic investigations.

Jasmine, who joined FFP in 2017, also provides risk management advice and assistance to our independent directors and liquidators ensuring sound independent governance.

She is qualified as a Solicitor in England and Wales (2013) and a Barrister and Solicitor in New Zealand (2005).

Jasmine has over 15 years' litigation, governance, investigation and e-discovery experience in the Cayman Islands, London and New Zealand. She also volunteers as Secretary to the Executive Committee of the Alex Panton Foundation, a registered not-for-profit organisation, that aims to improve the mental health of children and young adults in the Cayman Islands.
