Patrick Mulrenan is an Independent Fiduciary with broad experience across various companies, partnerships, alternative investment vehicles and other financial structures. In his capacity as Director of the Capital Markets, Patrick manages the Advisory Services and Investment Management at FFP Cayman including FFP (Advisors) Limited, a Cayman Islands based investment manager. He acts as Independent Director to entities who invest or trade in a wide spectrum of assets. Patrick has a particular focus on Digital Assets.

Prior to joining FFP Cayman, Patrick was a Vice-President of Capital Markets at Ocorian (fka Appleby Fiduciary Business) in the Cayman Islands where he focused on Structured Financed mandates. Before relocating to the Cayman Islands, Patrick acted in senior executive roles in a New York real estate Private Equity Firm, J.P Morgan and Deloitte, where his responsibilities included financial management of investment funds and capital structuring.

Patrick began his career in audit at Deloitte in the British Virgin Islands (BVI), where he obtained his CPA. Throughout his 5 years in the BVI, his clients were primarily hedge funds and other investment managers. In 2009, Patrick was chosen to form the new insolvency division in response to the 2008 Recession, where he became Manager of the Restructuring & Insolvency Department for Deloitte.

Patrick obtained an MBA from Cornell University specialising in Asset Management and Capital Markets. Upon graduation, Patrick joined J.P. Morgan Private Bank where he covered Financial Sponsors and was located both in New York City and Palm Beach, Florida. Patrick's investment mandates included both public and private markets.

Patrick is an Accredited Director and registered with the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority as an Approved Director.
