Jack Harwood-Scott is a Senior Case Accountant with over six years of experience in the restructuring and insolvency industry. Jack is involved on numerous cross-border insolvencies and other corporate services that concern stakeholders in various jurisdictions across the globe.

Prior to joining FFP Cayman, Jack was an Insolvency administrator at one of the UK's largest insolvency firms where he worked on solvent and insolvent liquidations and individual bankruptcies/arrangements. This work regularly involved the investigation of fraudulent activity and the sale of complex assets with an aim to maximize the return to creditors.

In addition, Jack has also held key roles on various turnaround cases that involve company sales in the manufacturing, hotel, and international media sectors.

Jack is a member of the Association of Accounting Technicians, holds a Certificate of Proficiency in Insolvency and is currently studying to become a member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.
