Janecke Rijs is the Operations Manager of our FFP Dubai, with responsibility for managing our office set-up and other business critical projects locally, as well as overseeing general operational and administrative processes.

Janecke has extensive experience in the financial services industry both in London and Dubai, across operational, project/event management and office management roles. She previously led office implementations in the DIFC for Goldman Sachs and later for SoftBank Management. Prior to joining us, Janecke was with 500 Global, managing investor events and other special projects.

Janecke holds a BSc in Anthropology from UCL and an MSc in Development Economics from SOAS, London.
