Matthew provides a key role within the insolvency team of FFP assisting with investigative case work, admin related tasks, and compliance functions. Matt assists with the day-to-day management of numerous clients, ranging from those involved in complex cross-border litigation, restructurings as well as structures of a more passive nature. Matt is also a key member of the onboarding team, ensuring a smooth transition for all incoming clients.

In September 2022, Matt joined the FFP team through the firm's graduate trainee program and has since been promoted to an analyst position within the insolvency team.

Matt graduated from the University of Edinburgh in July 2022 with a bachelor's in business management.
